

Course Title: Commercial Fire Fighter 1 Day

Overview (Target Audience)

This course is aimed at those personnel within a workplace who may require an initial attack of small fires in order to prevent a protracted incident. Giving the basic underpinning knowledge and skills required to use basic fire fighting equipment

Course Duration

1 Day

Course Pre-requisites

There are no prerequisites for this training.

Course Learning Outcomes

During the training the delegates will complete the following elements:

1. Theory of combustion
2. Fire spread
3. Selection of fire fighting media
4. Stretchers
5. Extinguisher operations
6. Selection & use of fire fighting hoses
7. Selection/ Use & flushing out of Foam making equipment
8. Responding to a Class B fire
9. Responding to a Class A fire

Elements 4 through to 9 will be performed practically Certification

Delegates will be issued with a Qatar International Safety Centre Certificate

Validity Period

2 Years

Min & Max No. of Delegates

Minimum: 4

Maximum: 12

Health & Fitness

All personnel who participate in practical activities specified in this course outline must be physically and mentally capable of participating fully.

All students will be asked to complete a Qatar International Safety Centre standard medical questionnaire prior to course commencement.

Delegates are required to declare any current or pre-existing medical conditions which may be exacerbated by, or impair their ability to complete, the training/assessment programme. Should this be the case, the individual may be required to provide an authentic medical certificate issued since any identified medical condition was diagnosed.

Venue (Training Location)

Qatar International Safety Centre
Gate 9, Street 45
Salwa Industrial Area
Doha
Qatar
PO BOX 23651

Dates & Cost

Please contact us direct for availability & costs:

Email: training@madinagulf.com

Tel: +974 4450 1223

Fax: +974 4450 1220

www.qisc.net

www.madinagulf.com